Dear Sirs,

I should like to ask whether or not you purchase old coins. If not, could you give me the names and addresses of some reliable firms which do deal in old coins as I would like to secure a catalog giving their valuations.

Yours truly,

Ruth E. Bryant

Dear Madam:

Your note of the 28th is at hand. We do not purchase old coins without seeing them, because their condition is the chief criterion in establishing their value, and two people rarely agree in describing the condition of any given coin. A publication by Wayte Raymond, (465 Park Avenue, New York City) lists United States coins on which a premium is paid. It may be had from him for fifty cents, and possibly this may meet your need.

If this information is of any service to you I shall be very happy.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
